

Basic Linux Commands & Basic Git Commands

BASIC LINUX COMMANDS

	Command	Sample Usage	Purpose
1	pwd	pwd	Shows the current directory/location.
2	ls	ls	Lists files and folders in the current directory.
3	cd	cd Documents	Moves to another directory.
4	mkdir	mkdir project	Creates a new directory/folder.
5	touch	touch index.html	Creates a new empty file.
6	cp	cp file.txt backup.txt	Copies a file or directory.
7	mv	mv old.txt new.txt	Moves or renames a file.
8	rm	rm file.txt	Removes/deletes a file.
9	cat	cat file.txt	Displays the contents of a file.
10	clear	clear	Clears the terminal screen.

BASIC GIT COMMANDS

git init

Example: git init

Description: Starts Git in a project folder.

Flag: -b main

git status

Example: git status

Description: Shows the current state of files.

Flag: -s

git add

Example: git add index.html

Description: Prepares changes for committing.

Flag: . = all changes

git commit

Example: git commit -m "Update profile"

Description: Saves staged changes as a version.

Flag: -m = commit message

git log

Example: git log

Description: Shows the commit history.

Flags: --oneline, -n 5

git diff

Example: git diff

Description: Shows unstaged changes.

Flag: --staged = staged changes

git restore

Example: git restore index.html

Description: Reverts changes to a file.

Flag: --staged = unstage file

git branch

Example: git branch feature

Description: Creates or lists branches.

Flags: -a, -d

git checkout

Example: git checkout main

Description: Switches branches or restores files.

Flag: -b = create new branch

git switch

Example: git switch feature

Description: Switches to another branch.

Flag: -c = create and switch

git merge

Example: git merge feature

Description: Combines another branch into the current branch.

Flag: --no-ff

git tag

Example: git tag v1.0

Description: Labels a commit with a version.

Flags: -a, -d

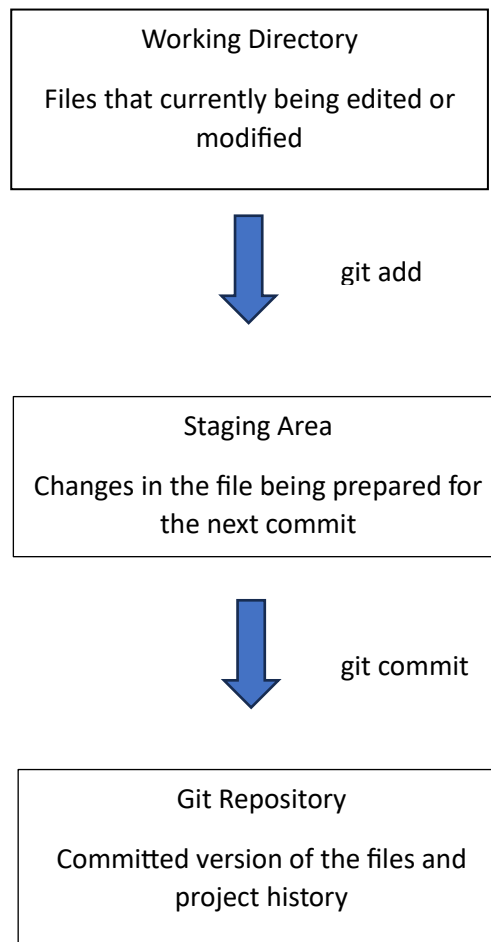

git clone

Example: git clone <https://github.com/user/project.git>

Description: Copies a remote repository to your computer.

Flags: -b, --depth 1

THREE-TREE ARCHITECTURE OF GIT

The author used ChatGPT to assist with researching and organizing. The author reviewed and edited the content as needed and takes full responsibility for the final work.

References

Git Documentation. (n.d.). Git documentation. <https://git-scm.com/docs>

GitHub Docs. (n.d.). GitHub Pages quickstart. <https://docs.github.com/en/pages/quickstart>

GNU Project. (n.d.). GNU coreutils. <https://www.gnu.org/software/coreutils/>